  - a. On May 3, 2013 at 4:18 pm Officers M. Hockman #189 and B. Hetzer #2571 of the Columbus Police Department were in uniform watching the rear of the barber shop at 2689 Cleveland Av. The barber shop is known to be an area where drugs are sold. Officers have made multiple arrests from this location including the seizure of a half a kilogram of cocaine a month prior. The officers observed a man, later identified as Anthony Ray VALDEZ, walking away from the barber shop. VALDEZ was walking towards a vehicle that was parked on the lot with the door standing open. Upon sight of the officers VALDEZ stopped and looked at his reflection in a mirror of a vehicle parked on the lot. The officer's approached Valdez on foot. Officer Hockman was about five feet from VALDEZ and could smell the odor of fresh marijuana coming from VALDEZ'S person. When officer Hockman asked VALDEZ what he was doing there was no reply. VALDEZ then turned his back to officer Hockman and reached his right hand into the front of his pants. VALDEZ the started to run. Officer Hockman feared the VALDEZ was attempting to pull a firearm from his waistband. Officer Hockman grabbed VALDEZ securing his right arm and performed and arm bar take down. Placing him to the ground. Officers informed VALDEZ that he was under arrest for obstructing official business. VALDEZ then removed his hand from his waistband and pulled out a plastic bag containing marijuana. VALDEZ continued to struggle and was eventually placed in handcuffs. A search of VALDEZ was conducted and recovered from his left front trouser pocket was 14.556 grams of cocaine base, other narcotics and $1,250.00.
  - b. The above property was collected and tested by the Columbus Police Department Laboratory. It is being held in the Columbus Police Department Property Room as evidence.
